

a taste for reading

benefit luncheon for children's literacy

april 9, 2008

doors open at 11:30 am

program from noon to 1:00 pm

at Bell Harbor International Promenade 211 alaskan way, pier 66

suggested parking garage:

Art Institute of Seattle/Bell Street Parking Garage entrances on Wall Street and Elliott Avenue

Your tax-deductible contribution to Page Ahead will bring new books and corresponding literacy services to children in need across Washington.

Every contribution over $250 will be matched.

Each $1,450 gift

will be matched to provide 3 books for every child in a school such as Emerson Elementary in Hoquiam

Each $480 gift

will be matched to provide books for 160 families at parent education workshops statewide

Each $160 gift

provides 1 Head Start classroom with books and services for one year

Please RSVP to LeAnne at lchow@pageahead.org or 206.461.0123 by March 21, 2008.

Page Ahead provides children from low-income families with new books and literacy services.

Help more children grow into informed, involved adults by supporting Page Ahead.

giving kids in need the chance to read

Page Ahead is a 501(c)(3) non-profit literacy organization. Contributions are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law. Fair market value of the lunch is $30.